KANSAS CITY STOCK MARKET RATHER QUIET.

Kansas City Stock Yards, May 26. —Total cattle supplies here last week were 42,000 head, but included in this was 6,000 head of thin cattle enroute from Texas to Dakota, and not on the market. All the markets were fairly well supplied, and prices declined 10 to 20 cents on fed westerns during the week. The supply is only two-thirds as large today as on recent days, and prices are 10 to 15 cents higher on westerns. Dealers expect moderate receipts for a month or two, and say that breaks in prices in the meantime will be of short duration. Offerings from the range country are meagre today, confined to some common cows which sold at $4.00. Sales late last week reached $6.75 for a cut of the Lockhart steers, other fed Colorado at $5.80 to $6.60, Colorado heifers $5.35 to $5.50, feeders $5.25, Oklahoma fed steers brought $6.80, Texas meal fed steers today at $5.80 to $6.00, grass cows from the south-west $2.75 to $4.10, veal calves up to $6.50. Several lots of Colorado cattle are enroute for this market later in the week with favorable prospects of meeting a good sale.

Sheep and lambs sold lower up to the middle of last week, but advanced slightly toward the close, and the market is 10 to 11 cents higher today; run 12,000 head today. Goats are $1.00 to $1.25 below their position two weeks ago, account of liberal receipts of same, and spring lambs are also off 50 to 75 cents in that time. Woolled lambs from Colorado sold at $8.95 to $9.00 here today, prices equal to same one week ago, spring lambs today at $8.25. Texas ewes sold today at $4.90, Texas wethers at $5.35 to $5.75, and some good Arizona wethers brought $6.00 today. Receipts of sheep and lambs for May will be 15 per cent short of last May here, and movements of buyers indicate that choice offerings will hold up to present high rates, while medium to common stock may sell with some disappointment to owners.

BREWERS ASSOCIATION TO HOLD CONVENTION

Atlantic City, N. J., May 26.—It has been decided by the United States Brewers association to have a public session on Wednesday evening, June 2, the second day of its national convention, when that body meets next month. The meeting will be addressed by prominent publicists, who have been invited to express their views with the utmost frankness.

One of the speakers will be the Rev. John P. Peters rector of St. Michael's Protestant Episcopal church in New York, and chairman of the Committee of Fourteen, which was organized for the suppression of the Raines Law Hotels. This committee has invited the co-operation of the brewing trade, and of the bonding companies, and under their joint action, a number of the most objectionable resorts in New York City have been closed. Dr. Peters was professor of Hebrew at the University of Pennsylvania in 1885, and prior to that, professor of Old Testament languages and literature in the P. E. Divinity school at Philadelphia. He had charge of the expedition of the University of Pennsylvania to Babylon, conducting the excavations at Nippur some fifteen years ago. He is well known in practical political reforms in New York, and has taken a leading part for some years in the work for the social welfare of the people of the community. Dr. Peters' address will deal with the evils connected with the liquor traffic, the necessity of reforming them, and the means of reforming as he sees it in New York.

Dr. Allen McLane Hamilton will speak from the Medico-Physiological standpoint. Dr. Hamilton, who is the well known specialist in nervous diseases, was formerly professor of mental diseases at Cornell University college, and is the author of a number of well known works on medical jurisprudence; nervous diseases, railway and other accidents, etc. It will be recalled that Dr. Hamilton testified for the government as expert in the trial of the assassin Guitau.

John Koren, of Boston, the well known statistician, will speak on the legislative aspects of the liquor problem and local option. Mr. Koren was in the service of the Committee of Fifty, which investigated the liquor problem from 1894 to 1899, and is the author of the volumes on "Economic Aspects of the Liquor Problem" and the "Liquor Problem in its Legislative Aspects." He is an expert special agent of the United States Bureau of Census on social statistics, relating particularly to apoplexy, insanity and crime. He was special expert of the United States Department of Labor, abroad, in 1891; and in 1893 was sent by the Federal government to Europe to study the Gothenburg System. He is the secretary and directing spirit of the American Statistical association.

Household Remedies

are a blessing to the vast army of people who live in rural districts, and such standard medicines as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which has stood the test of time, growing in popularity and favor every year, will continue to be the safeguard of American women for all the years peculiar to their sex.

The debate at the Normal University on Monday night resulted in a victory for Miss Jeanette Ward and Joshua Powers who had the affirmative on the subject "Resolved That United States Senators Should be Elected by a direct vote of the People." Miss Flora McClellan and Orin Blood had the negative side. Attorney A. T. Rogers, Jr., announced the decision, making a very fine speech which was vigorously applauded.

Try This for Dessert.

Dissolve one package of any flavor JELL-O in one pint of boiling water. When partly congealed, beat until light adding one cup whipped cream and six crushed macaroons. Whip all together thoroughly and pour it into a mold or bowl. When cool, it will jellify and may be served with whipped cream or any good pudding sauce.

The JELL-O costs 10c per package and can be obtained at any good grocers.

A New York dispatch mentions that the city is threatened with a bread famine. Do they still eat that stuff in New York?

Hoarseness, bronchitis and other throat troubles are quickly cured by Foley's Honey and Tar as it soothes and heals the inflamed throat and bronchial tubes and the most obstinate cough disappears. Insist upon having the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar. O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Co.

CUTTING UP A HIPPOPOTAMUS.

Tough Hide Can Be Relied On to Blunt Many Sharp Knives.

To cut up a hippopotamus is no easy task. In some places the hide is almost two and a half inches thick, and before you have got through a hand's breadth your knife has completely lost its edge and requires to be resharpened. The head and the feet are put on one side to be preserved as trophies of the chase, while the remainder of the flesh is cut into long, thin strips which, after they have been dried by hanging them on the tree branches, will keep good for a very long time. The ivory of the teeth and tusks, which is of very fine quality, used to be employed almost exclusively in the manufacture of false teeth; nowadays it is turned to all the purposes of ordinary ivory.

As for the hide, cut into strips it is made into "ticks," which are as good defensive weapons as one could wish to possess. Treated with oil they become as transparent as tortoise shell, and look quite pretty. Out of hippopotamus hide bullock drivers likewise make throngs for their whips which are positively everlasting, and fetch, relatively speaking, quite a good price. —From "Hunting the Hippopotamus," in the Wide World Magazine.

PHYSICIAN NOT A GREAT HELP.

Senator Cameron's Thoughtfulness Met with Poor Reward.

Remarking on the physical disabilities of men who have occupied seats in the senate in his time, the venerable Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire related in the cloakroom the other day a story of Senator Simon Cameron of Pennsylvania.

"It was during Cameron's last term in the senate," said he. "A few of us were asked to visit the battlefield of Gettysburg. Cameron was among the number. The day before we were to start he came to me and said he was not in good condition physically and asked if it would be all right for him to take a physician along. I said certainly. The morning before we were to start I was surprised to see Cameron come to the train holding up a shadow of a man, who turned out to be his physician. It amused us much to see the senator get behind that physician of his and fairly boost him up the train steps. Throughout the journey Cameron was busy taking care of this physician he had brought along." —Boston Transcript.

Kissing.

"Kissing, which has become so common a thing in this day, was not done at all in public in my young days," said an ancient dame as she witnessed two women embrace each other at the Grand Central station when they met and again when they parted and said "Good-by." "I cannot remember when it first began to be; I only remember a time when such a thing would have been thought unseemly.

"Except at children's parties, when we played the game of 'Pillows and Keys,' I never saw kissing. It simply wasn't the custom of the people then. I suppose it must have been the influence of the Puritan ancestry of so many of that day. The practice has crept in from Europe, especially from England, where it is so commonly done. It doesn't indicate any special fondness for the persons embraced; it is merely a form of salutation."

He Was the Limit.

A number of congressmen were talking of the smooth characters that appear in Washington in support of certain legislation. Reference was made to a lobbyist who had the reputation of being one of the "allickest" that ever visited the capital, when some one asked a prominent southern congressman whether the lobbyist was indeed as clever as he had been represented.

"Why, gentleman," replied the congressman, "that man could hear a postage stamp drop into a waste basket!"

The 14th Their Unlucky Day.

Superstitions of the sea should have their edge taken off by the disaster off the coast of Malta last fall. The Sardinia was due to sail from the home port on Friday, November 13, a day which was doubly unlucky. It is even difficult to get a sailor to sail on Friday, let alone the 13th of so horrid a month as November. So the men demanded delay—and they sailed on November 14; and came to grief, notwithstanding.

Saving His Strength.

Mr. Bunker—I've walked at least 20 miles playing golf and—
Mrs. Bunker (breaking in)—I don't doubt it, and yet you made an awful fuss this morning when I asked you to step down cellar and bring up a pail of coal for me.
Mr. Bunker—Well, did you imagine I was anxious to tire myself out carrying coal when I knew I had that long walk ahead of me?

Couldn't Oblige.

The small boy approached the box office of the moving picture show.
"Say, mister," he queried, "will you let me in to see the show to-night? I'll pay you to-morrow."
"Can't do it, sonny," replied the man behind the glass window. "This ain't a loan exhibition."

Always Acceptable.

"When I send out manuscripts," said the confident youth, "the editor always finds something he can use."
"I see," answered Miss Caymans. "You inclose stamps."
